

Job Vacancy

Quality Technician – Polypipe Civils & Green Urbanisation

An exciting opportunity has arisen to appoint a Quality Technician at the Loughborough Site.

This is a full-time position working 40 hours per week.

Mon – Fri, 08:30-17:00

Role Outline

Responsible for testing and inspecting products in line with standards the job holder will undertake their daily core activities either in the office or the shop floor working environment.

Core Responsibilities

- Existing and New Product Development (NPD) testing
- Undertake IMS internal audits and supplier audits.
- Completion and updates of risk assessments and safe systems of work
- Continuous improvement projects
- Corrective and preventative actions
- Conduct daily quality inspections of Loughborough operations.
- Evaluating weld test integrity of all fabricators.
- Prepare compounder material samples for routine testing.
- Ensure we retain our company certifications and product approvals from BSI, BBA and WRC.

Key knowledge, skills and abilities

- Previous experience of Quality Assurance or Plastics Manufacturing background
- Good communication & presentation skills
- Knowledge of BS ISO 9001
- A high degree of attention to detail
- Possess excellent analytical skills.
- Self-motivated, well organised, and methodical work ethic

To apply for this position, please submit an up-to-date CV along with a covering letter addressed to the HR Department at cguhr@polypipe.com

Closing date for applications is Friday 19th May 2023

Part of the  GENUIT
GROUP

 Polypipe
Civils & Green Urbanisation